numbers? Could it be that they are interested in this extended discussion? We shall see. Was that my third time, Mr. President?

SENATOR CUDABACK: That was your closing, Senator Chambers. This will be your closing coming up.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. I didn't want to get cheated.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Fifteen seconds on your original five minutes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, I will give that back and begin my closing now.

SENATOR CUDABACK: You may. You're recognized to close on the amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. Mr. President and members of the Legislature, now that I see what some of these other bills are and I'm being shown by the votes that nobody cares about those bills, then I'm going to get down to the real nitty-gritty now, and I'm going to start offering some reconsideration motions. At first, I didn't know whether we'd go the full eight hours but now I believe that my colleagues are serious about that. And I do know there are some people who don't like LB 1010. I'm one of them although I wasn't aware that that was one of these. But let me continue with the bills that we won't have to worry about. I had touched on a bill of the Speaker, LB 1067; then we jump a full 100 to LB 1167, and that is one brought by my seatmate, Senator Thompson, Senator Jensen, and Senator Dwite Pedersen, who have been voting with Senator Wickersham. But what will this inconsequential bill do? Oh, change provisions relating to juvenile justice. Everybody knows we don't care about that, so I won't even linger on that. Then my favorite, LB 1234, again orchestrated by Senator Schrock, and Senator Beutler has an interest in that, as does Senator Preister. But here is where they are fortunate. It is not necessary that these bills be moved off Select File today. However, if they are not, then they further encumber Select File where the Speaker told us we will have 14 hours to deal with all of the bills over there. So if we don't deal with these bills today,
